

EX.2.1.7, Sauer3

Assume that a given computer requires 0.002 seconds to complete backsubstitution on a 4000 upper triangular matrix equation. Estimate the time needed to solve a general system of 9000 equations in 9000 unknowns. Round your answer to the nearest second.