

EX.2.1.6, Sauer3

Assume that your computer completes a 5000 equation back substitution in 0.005 seconds. Use the approximate operation counts n^2 for back substitution and $2n^3/3$ for elimination to estimate how long it will take to do a complete Gaussian elimination of this size. Round your answer to the nearest second.