

Let

$$\alpha = \arcsin\left(\frac{1}{3}\right).$$

Without using the inverse sine function, derive a Newton iteration

$$x_{k+1} = g(x_k)$$

that converges to α . Clearly state the nonlinear equation to which you apply Newton's method and simplify the resulting iteration as much as possible.

(You are allowed to use sin and cos functions.)