

Let

$$\alpha = \ln 2.$$

Without using the logarithm function, derive a Newton iteration

$$x_{k+1} = g(x_k)$$

that converges to α .

Clearly state the nonlinear equation to which you apply Newton's method and simplify the resulting iteration as much as possible.

(You are allowed to use the exp function. You are not allowed to use the ln function.)